GOOD BLOOD NEEDED IN SPRING TIME

People With Poor Appetite, Bad Complexions and "Spring Fever" Need a Blood Tonic

GUDE'S PEPTO-MANGAN IS BEST

Makes Rich Red Blood—Renews Vitality and Increases Body's Resistance to Disease.

Spring is the time when good blood is so vital to health. If you do not feel the thrill of Spring in your blood, if you take no pleasure in living, if your appetite is poor, your complexion pallid or muddy, and you tire easily, you can be pretty sure your blood is not up to the mark. So many feel that way in the Spring. Especially housewives who have so much work to do. They get over-tired and run-down—their blood becomes weak and thin.

Build up your health now by taking that splendid Spring blood tonic, Gude's Pepto-Mangan. It will give vital power to the red corpuscles in your blood. They will go racing through your blood, carrying fresh supplies of oxygen to all the tiny cells. It will help improve your color and your appetite. You'll take more interest in things and enjoy life more. You will stop going around with that tired, all-gone feeling.

Physicians have prescribed Gude's Pepto-Mangan for thirty years. You can get it at your druggist's in either tablet or liquid form. Take whichever you prefer. They have the same medicinal value. Get the genuine.—Advertisement.

INFURIATED MOB HANGS NEGRO AT VERSAILLES SUNDAY

Jury Hangs In Trial of Alleged Murderer and Mob Takes the Case In Its Own Hands.

Versailles, Ky., March 14.—Richard James, negro, charged with the murder of two white men at Midway, this county, was taken from Woodford county jail by a mob early Sunday and hanged to a tree two miles from this city.

The negro was asleep in his cell when the mob of fifty men, who are said to have come from Midway in seven automobiles, surrounded the jail. Four men from the mob entered the jail and aroused John T. Edgar, jailer, forced him to give up his keys and proceeded to the cell of the negro.

James showed fight when the men told him to step out of the cell. One of the four men then struck the negro on the head with a blackjack.

A rope was placed around James' neck and he was dragged to the street and thrown into an automobile.

The mob then drove to the intersection of the Frankfort and Midway pikes, where the negro was hanged.

His body was cut down several hours later by officials. Just before being executed James, it is reported, admitted he was guilty of the murders.

James was charged with having murdered Ben T. Rogers and Homer Nave during an attempt to steal whisky from a distillery warehouse at Midway.

On the night of October 9, 1920, James, with companions, broke into the distillery and had prepared twelve cases of whiskey for removal when heard by a guard.

Rogers and Nave, young men living in Midway, went to the assistance of the guard, and Rogers, it is said, grappled with James.

The negro is said to have drawn a revolver and shot Rogers in the back twice as they struggled. Then, it was charged, James shot down Nave.

James was placed on trial before

Circuit Judge Robert Lee Stout here last week. The jury reported to Judge Stout Saturday that it was unable to reach a verdict.

Judge Stout, after discharging the jury, immediately ordered a special session of the court to be convened March 28 for a retrial of the case.

The jury which was discharged Saturday, was said to have agreed that James was guilty but could not agree on a penalty, eleven voting for the death sentence and one holding out for life imprisonment.
